

AQUINAS COLLEGE EMERITUS EVENING

May 1, 2024 | Frederik Meijer Gardens

Join us as we celebrate our Catholic and Dominican heritage by honoring the incredible contributions made by our Dominican Sisters and Dr. Paul Farr! Proceeds from this event will support the Aquinas College Annual Scholarship Fund and the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Aquinas College.

Mackey Sponsor - $15,000 (exclusive - Presenting)

In 1931, Dominican Prioress, Mother Eveline Mackey pioneered the move to transform Marywood College into a full-fledged junior college.

- Premier recognition as Mackey sponsor on all event materials
- 20 guest attendees (two tables) to event with premium table seating
- Verbal recognition from podium
- Premier logo listing on mailed event invitations if committed by March 2024
- Premier logo usage in event print and audio visual materials
- Premier logo recognition in CANOPY, on AQ website and on social media

Flannery Sponsor - $10,000

Mother Victor Flannery oversaw the erection of the Academic Building, Albertus Magnus Science Hall, Wege Student Center, and more. She served as Prioress of the Dominican Sisters for eighteen years from 1948-1966.

- Recognition as Flannery Sponsor on all event materials
- 10 guest attendees (one table) to event with premium table seating
- Verbal recognition from podium
- Name recognition in event print and audio visual materials
- Name recognition in CANOPY, on AQ website and on social media

Hawkins Sponsor - $5,000

Sister Mildred Hawkins, Academic Dean from 1949 - 1963, was instrumental in relocating campus to the Lowe Estate.

- Recognition as Hawkins Sponsor on all event materials
- 10 guest attendees (one table) to event
- Logo usage in event print and audio visual materials
- Logo recognition in CANOPY, on AQ website and on social media

Sullivan Sponsor - $3,000

Mother Euphrasia Sullivan brought Dominican Friars to Marywood as Chaplains in 1942, who served as AQ Professors.

- 6 guest attendees to event
- Name recognition in event print and audio visual materials
- Name recognition in CANOPY, on AQ website and on social media

